Reserve Member Benefits

Since 1951, PPOA has proudly offered an expanding array of benefits to its membership. The list below is assurance that PPOA's board and staff strive to secure new, valuable benefits year after year. Here is a brief summary of the many PPOA benefits, perks and privileges available to LASD reserves:

Legal Defense Plan

As you know, LASD reserves are particularly vulnerable to civil and criminal liability resulting from their duties as a peace officer. PPOA members are provided with defense coverage to protect you from these civil and criminal actions.

Labor Representation

LASD reserves are at-will employees and have limited protection regarding personnel complaint investigations. However, PPOA will provide labor representation through the administrative process, including grievances and IAB interviews.

Law Firms

PPOA members benefit from the expertise of attorneys specializing in everything from workers' compensation to the Peace Officers' Bill of Rights. Every active PPOA member is afforded representation from an attorney for ERCOM/civil service, use of force and shootings.

Free Non-Job-Related Legal Advice

A free 1-hour consultation with an attorney is available each year for every PPOA member regarding matters unrelated to your employment.

POPA Federal Credit Union

Established by PPOA members in 1977, the credit union is full-service, nonprofit and member-owned, with more than $170 million in assets and four full-service locations in Los Angeles County.

PPOA Insurance Agency
