Money, Money, Money

The topic for this month's article comes from my father, retired LAPD detective Larry Rhodes. My entire life I heard, "Money talks, bull$#*t walks." As I get older and begin my tenure as PPOA president, this saying continues to resonate in my recent experiences.

PPOA has been feverishly working to establish collaborative relationships, be it with ALADS, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors or the state Legislature. While these relationships are the primary component for communicating our needs and perspective, it has become blatantly obvious to me that my father's adage has come home to roost — "Money talks, bull$#*t walks." For this reason, I am humbly asking each and every one of you to opt in to donating to the PPOA Political Action Committee (PAC).

The PPOA PAC interviews candidates for elected office, offering endorsements and campaign contributions. Additionally, donations to the PAC are used to encourage and defend statewide legislation as well as ballot initiatives. As you can imagine, our voice is only as large as our political checkbook. PPOA needs your help in order to continue our efforts to protect our interests and defend our salaries, benefits and retirements. As a comparison, other large law enforcement associations have PAC funds ranging from $1.5 to $4 million. During my tenure as your president, it is my goal to increase our PAC account to an annual standing balance of $2 million. For this reason, PPOA is asking everyone to provide a suggested (and hopeful) donation of at least $20 per month. While $20 per month to you personally may represent about five gallons of gas or six Starbucks macchiatos, $20 per month represents what could be up to approximately $180,000 a month to the PAC. That would not only give PPOA a voice, that would give us a shout!

Tab Rhodes

I understand that donating to another cause is difficult, not particularly popular and may not be achievable for some of you. But I must take the opportunity now to explain that public safety in California is in trouble. Our cause of maintaining safe communities is being threatened by the well-meaning but often misled reformers who at this moment are running our government.

Public safety has been marginalized. Well-intended social reforms have created unintended consequences, impeding effectiveness, increasing danger to law enforcement professionals and compromising community safety.

Recent reform efforts continue the disparaging of crime victims while coddling offenders. Statistics prove that the efforts of social reforms are increasing the number of victims in these

Custody Commitment Reduced to Three Years for Lieutenants

It has become very evident in this new administration that patrol is king. As the promotional process with the new Sheriff has yet to be discussed, or for that matter defined, one thing is certain: working a line position in the field has its advantages. For that reason, and after months of conversations on this topic, it was absolutely imperative for tenured lieutenants assigned to Custody Divisions to be provided the opportunity to further their career by transferring to field assignments.

Please note the following details of the agreement:

- During the duration of the "dual track" program, 50% of patrol watch commander lieutenant vacancies will be filled with existing custody lieutenants who meet or exceed the three-year or more custody commitment period, thus allowing patrol sergeants to continue their promotional path while preventing an exodus of lieutenants and their subject matter expertise from Custody Divisions.

- Transfers for all existing lieutenants will be made based on time in grade as a lieutenant. Department seniority will be used as a tiebreaker.
- Existing custody lieutenants who meet the three-year or more custody commitment period shall also be permitted to transfer to non-watch commander assignments.

This new agreement was initiated by changes from the new Sheriff's paradigm and addresses disparity in the treatment of PPOA members (the custody commitment for sergeants was already reduced to three years by then-Sheriff McDonnell). Lieutenants interested in advancing their career under this new administration may now have the opportunity to do so before reaching an age of career obsolescence due to the one commodity of which none of us have enough — time.

We are grateful to the Department for recognizing the need for this agreement and working with PPOA to resolve the issue. We also want to give special thanks to Undersheriff Murakami and personnel from Employee Relations for making this agreement possible.

— Tab Rhodes

Two Important Elections and a Critical New Hire

As we wrap up the last year of the 2010s and usher in the beginning of a new year and decade on January 1, there will be many challenges and opportunities awaiting PPOA. Rest assured that your union will hold strong and remain committed to a “tradition of success,” which has not changed during PPOA’s 68-year history.

THE 2020 LOS ANGELES COUNTY ELECTIONS

In March (not June) of 2020, there will be two critical elections that PPOA must engage in: the race for the 2nd District on the L.A. County Board of Supervisors and the L.A. County district attorney’s race. I cannot overstate the significance of these two elections. The ability for PPOA to negotiate fair and equitable labor contracts, which is the first and foremost objective of not only PPOA, but any labor union sitting at the bargaining table, must be fully supported by our elected officials who vote to approve our memorandums of

— to be challenged by former San Francisco District Attorney George Gascon.

If there is any doubt that Gascon, who is a self-proclaimed criminal justice progressive, is not the right choice for L.A. County’s district attorney, consider this statement from the San Francisco Police Officers Association: “We are praying for the residents of Los Angeles, hoping that George Gascon does not do to their city what he did to San Francisco during his tenure — double digit increases in crime, author of Proposition 47 that created our criminal justice revolving door, cars broken into by the thousands and neighborhoods ravaged by open-air drug markets and crime. We are happy he will be leaving San Francisco but feel horrible that he is taking his record of failure to an even larger county where he can cause even more harm to public safety. Good riddance.”

understanding (MOUs). This fact is one of many reasons why PPOA has proudly endorsed L.A. City Council President Herb Wesson (wessonforsupervisor2020.com) for County supervisor. As council president, Wesson has championed forward-thinking policy initiatives that have made Los Angeles a better and safer place to live, work and raise a family. As supervisor, PPOA is confident that he will work to ensure that our public safety officers have the resources and support they need to do their jobs safely.

PPOA is also extremely pleased to once again endorse our two-term incumbent District Attorney Jackie Lacey (jackielacey.com), who is the first woman and first African-American to serve as L.A. County’s district attorney since the office was created in 1850. Standby for our extremely effective and superbly qualified district attorney — who works every day to protect the rights of all and who works even harder to enhance neighborhood safety

Wrapping Up a Year of Progress and Challenges for Custody Assistants

With this being the final article of 2019, I want to reflect on the past year and touch upon the items of concern going into 2020.

This year has seen a continued growth in numbers, but that growth does not reflect an expansion of the role as a whole. There are numerous individuals with skill sets that have benefited their unit and this Department.

There is still some “soul searching” to be done. That process has been aided by monthly meetings with the Department regarding issues concerning custody assistants at a specific unit or overall. Items have been resolved at these meetings and other situations improved despite some supervisors’ unwillingness to be there to answer for their units’ missteps.

Some supervisors are unaware. Others do not realize the severity until they are there. At that point, steps to address the matters in-house either failed or were ignored. After going through the process, some lieutenants and captains now welcome the discussion. It is easier and looks better to have reached a resolution between line and supervisors in some cases.

open and honest discussions about what to do and where to go, including what areas are in line with the position, what areas need to be examined and what areas have a fundamental disconnect between risk, liability, tools and pay.

Additional jailers are still an objective. The recent assault of a Marina del Rey jailer only adds to the need. As executives and legislators continue to create work for the station jailer, no one is asking “how is this going to get done?” Or “do we need to increase staffing?” Should these contact cities have an additional jailer budgeted for and included in services?

And what role does the CCJV, Rosas and other federal mandates play in the station jails? Should the funding that covered changes and implementation in custody cover station jails as well? The same Title 15 standards apply. Why wouldn’t the funding and codes?

Station jailers have become an afterthought. Most supervisors only care that the checks are done; never mind everything else that goes into it. When a supervisor says “I don’t care about the jail,” it’s because he or she is not held to the same liability even though they check the jail twice per shift. One jailer said “they are setting us up for failure.” True. So the work continues to improve this situation.

For 2020, I hope to make more visits and briefings on each shift and extend these visits to the courts as well as LCMC. I will utilize the PPOA app more for announcements of those trips and updates. I also hope to utilize personal emails for blasts, information updates and to fill you in when your delegates are unavailable for meetings. With that, please make sure you have downloaded the PPOA app and make sure your personal email is on file at PPOA. Email that, along with your name and employee number, to info@ppoa.com.

The objective is always to be better. To be as detailed and relational as possible. To be more efficient as the scope broadens on what this position can be and what our position should be.

Take care. Be safe. ♥

AS EXECUTIVES AND LEGISLATORS CONTINUE TO CREATE WORK FOR THE STATION JAILER, NO ONE IS ASKING “HOW IS THIS GOING TO GET DONE?”

By the time this goes to print, the Audit and Accountability Bureau should hopefully be wrapping up their review, unless there is information that warrants further research and documentation. The goal is to take those findings and have

Fighting for Better Protection for LASD Security Personnel

One of the most valuable benefits of PPOA membership is the team of trusted experts assembled to help guide this union and its members. They provide expertise on grievances, lawsuits, legislation, retirement and more. Recently, I was discussing 4850 time with one of those experts, a PPOA attorney with a firm that has helped thousands of law enforcement personnel over the years. The subject of 4850 time (injured-on-duty pay) is a touchy one for some of us, mainly because the California Legislature has made it available to some classifications but not to others. PPOA has made repeated attempts to secure 4850 time for security officers and security assistants over the years, but unfortunately, lawmakers pay little attention to issues affecting “security” personnel. By no means will this union stop trying to get 4850 time for us, but in the meantime, I want to shed light on a related benefit many of you may not be familiar with. Please read the information below, provided to me by our PPOA attorney:

paid so long as the above conditions are met.”

If you would like further clarification, please let me know and I can put you in contact with our workers’ compensation attorney.

In my last article, I referenced the Valor Award earned by Security Officer Gerardo Fabian for his life-saving actions in 2016. Unfortunately, the awards ceremony scheduled for October 17 was canceled due to the sudden budget restrictions placed on the Department by the County Board of Supervisors. I hate the thought of politics preventing the proper acknowledgement of heroic actions by Department personnel, but that is the reality in which we live (and

PPOA HAS MADE REPEATED ATTEMPTS TO SECURE 4850 TIME FOR SECURITY OFFICERS AND SECURITY ASSISTANTS, BUT UNFORTUNATELY, LAWMAKERS PAY LITTLE ATTENTION TO ISSUES AFFECTING ‘SECURITY’ PERSONNEL.

“Those who are not eligible for Labor Code Section 4850 benefits are entitled to what is known as Temporary Total Disability (or TTD/State Rate). An injured worker is entitled to TTD when he/she is off work due to an industrial injury. So long as a doctor within the County’s MPN (medical provider network) takes the injured worker off work, he/she will receive two-thirds of their weekly paycheck not to exceed $1,251.38 per week (paid biweekly). Please note the date of injury will dictate the TTD max (2018: $1,215.27; 2017: $1,172.57). TTD extends for 104 weeks or until the doctor states the injured worker is ‘maximally medically improved’ (MMI) or ‘permanent and stationary’ (P&S), whichever occurs first. Keep in mind that MOU benefits will supersede TTD so the 70% pay for three months will kick in, but thereafter, TTD will be

Dual Track, Promotions and You

In September, your union took action to defend you and the language in the current memorandum of understanding (MOU) by filing a lawsuit against the Department. This action was not taken lightly, debated at great length by the Board of Directors, and ultimately was agreed to be the best course of action. The Department must come to the table, work in good faith and consider the broad impact of its actions on its employees and our members.

The Department has placed significant emphasis on “due process.” Yet it has not come to the table in such a way that has opened meaningful, productive and comprehensive dialogue regarding the matters of dual track, promotions and you — our members and its employees. This should concern each one of us. With members at various phases of their careers, it’s critical this conversation, both formally and informally, should start sooner than later.

It is imperative that we have thoughtful dialogue regarding all our members and the dual track career path. Any modification or elimination of dual track should only be done after having fair and acceptable solutions for the various groups of members impacted. A subcommittee among the PPOA Board of Directors was formed as a working group to develop what I describe as PPOA’s promotional proposal to the Department. If you have any realistic ideas or thoughts on this topic, please email them to me and I will share them with our subcommittee.

Ryan A. Vienna
PPOA Board Member
Lieutenant, LASD
rvienna@ppoa.com

In history, our members and the Department experienced the lengthy Bouman v. Baca litigation which tied up the promotional process and prompted reforms and a consent decree. A substantive discussion must be had to ensure history does not repeat itself. On October 5, a patrol track-only sergeant test was administered. While PPOA has filed a legal action regarding this matter, it should be noted the “rating from record” was formalized as a component of the test. And yet, there has been no formal definition of the criteria to base the “rating from record” provided to PPOA or any agreed upon criteria reached. One might find it interesting how the Department has cited a failure to meet and confer on “due process” as the reasoning for returning discipline guidelines to a past time, but ironically is not engaging in “due process” for the purposes of this discussion.

I hope our Sheriff and his team will come together to work with PPOA for the good of our members and the Department. Echoing our President, it is with the deepest care and love for our Department and our members that these concerns are voiced. Years ago, our Sheriff was a co-founding member of another union. Many members wish to believe his professed care for labor was more than a personal accomplishment. I, too, wish to believe the same. For those active members, know that PPOA is taking dual track, promotions and you — our member — very seriously. Stay tuned. 🇺🇸

Who Is Looking Out for Your Benefits, Retirement and Best Interests?

One of the most important benefits of the career we chose is health care. Those of us now retired worked for decades under the promise that if we served as public servants for 25 years in a career that has a historically high level of short- and long-term injury, then the County will provide medical benefits for our lifetime.

Many of you know that, several years ago, the County successfully squashed that incredibly important benefit, in part by only covering the member instead of their family upon retirement (for those hired after that contract date). In other words, those new members get to say to their spouses, “Hey honey, thanks for standing next to me for 30 years. Thanks for going through the ups and downs. Thanks for caring. Thanks for raising our kids and providing support for me during my career, but oops, I’m retiring and you gotta get your own medical care now. And so do the kids.”

Jim Schallert
PPOA Retiree Liaison
LASD retired
jschallert@ppoa.com

Enter the Blue Cross medical insurance cap of $1 million, which has remained unchanged for many, many years. Imagine that. Such a simple fix, but the County has not fixed it and our retired members are truly beginning to suffer. What do I think? I think that the County will use this to erode benefits.

As we move forward over the next few months, PPOA will be speaking with involved parties to see what can be done. LACERA is paying attention to this issue and I believe is stepping up. The Board needs to listen to retirees. We have lots of time on our hands, know how to write letters and many of us can still show up at their door or their fundraising events.

Until next month, please reach out to me if you want to be involved to ensure our benefits are secure. We lived up to our end, now the County needs to live up to theirs.

One more thing: Many of you who retired this year finally received back pay due to you from the County for a patrol bonus we should have received last July. However, LACERA has yet to recalculate pensions and issue back pay. I sent two letters to LACERA and they indicated it was not their responsibility yet, as the County has not notified them of the back pay. They need to wait for that notification. With that said, there isn’t much LACERA can do at this point. PPOA will be reaching out to the Department and County to see who dropped the ball. Heck, it’s only been almost a year and a half. Until next month? ♥

PLEASE REACH OUT TO ME IF YOU WANT TO BE INVOLVED TO ENSURE OUR BENEFITS ARE SECURE. WE LIVED UP TO OUR END, NOW THE COUNTY NEEDS TO LIVE UP TO THEIRS.

To me, this was one of the biggest losses in any negotiations and I believe the County was truly heartless in their approach. It only cost them $500 per active member to do away with those benefits. They could have increased our 457 contribution or suggested any number of other options to help, but they didn’t.

And guess what? They did it again with PEPR, which was a statewide measure that changed pensions for all persons hired beginning in 2013. Guess what? The County did it again. They realized savings of approximately 5–9% per hired person forever in their salaries because the member now pays that amount instead of the County (50/50 split in pension cost) and our new members have salary calculation caps. In other words, members hired after 2013 who promote to lieutenant will receive the pension of about a deputy. Everyone is the same no matter your salary or position if you are above the salary cap (salary used to calculate pensions).

same neighborhoods the reformists claim to care about.

PPOA and other public safety organizations are supportive of viable reforms, especially those that will help California through this crisis with mental illness and homelessness. I have personally communicated this message to each and every elected official and governmental staff member in our meetings during the last few months.

All we ask is that our voice, experience and expertise be heard. The only way to enhance professionalism in public safety is for our subject-matter experts to be included in the discussions. The only way for our voice to be heard is to have money backing our perspective. Again, and for that reason, I reluctantly but fervently request you donate to the PPOA PAC. Please complete the form below or visit PPOA.com to complete the form online. Please help us assist you in improving each of our communities in California, our profession and our lives. ♥

THE RETIREMENT OF L.A. COUNTY CEO SACHI HAMAI

On October 15, to PPOA's great disappointment (but congratulations to her nonetheless), CEO Sachi A. Hamai announced she will retire in early 2020 after 31 years of County service. Ms. Hamai was named the interim CEO in 2014, appointed CEO in 2015 and presently oversees a County budget of $36 billion and a workforce of almost 113,000. The Board of Supervisors will be tasked with selecting her successor. PPOA will be reaching out to the Board offices to communicate our thoughts and ideas on the critically important qualities and skill sets that the next County CEO must possess.

PPOA's last two MOUs (2015–2018 and 2018–2021) for Bargaining Units 612, 614, 621, 631 and 632 have occurred under the watchful eye of CEO Hamai and have been negotiated in good faith by members of her staff. For the most part, PPOA has been treated fairly and equitably at the bargaining table, resulting in collective bargaining agreements that have been overwhelmingly ratified by the PPOA membership. In the fall of 2020, PPOA and the County will return to the bargaining table to begin negotiating a successor MOU for Bargaining Unit 612. PPOA is certainly hopeful that the new CEO will continue the professional collective bargaining practices that have occurred over our past two contract negotiations, resulting in labor peace and harmony in the County of Los Angeles.

On behalf of PPOA, we send our sincere gratitude to Ms. Hamai, who has always displayed in thought and action her care and concern for the PPOA membership and their families. Her selfless service to the residents of Los Angeles County and her fair and equitable treatment of the County employees and PPOA members charged to deliver the Board of Supervisors' policies will not be forgotten. PPOA wishes Ms. Hamai a very healthy and prosperous retirement.

We must all collectively commit to and never forget that a strong and unified PPOA can overcome any challenges in front of us and allow us to proactively engage in opportunities (e.g., opt in to PAC) that will better our membership. Thank you for your support this past year and your continued commitment to ensuring that the PPOA membership prospers in 2020. ♥ work). Regardless, I want to give one final shout-out to Officer Fabian for his poise and professionalism. Keep up the excellent work, sir.

Speaking of acknowledgement for our colleagues, Security Officer Francisco Fajardo was recently presented with a Lifesaving Award for coming to the aid of a choking victim in 2017. Officer Fajardo was at a restaurant when the manager informed him that a customer was choking. Thankfully, Officer Fajardo used his training and experience to perform the Heimlich maneuver and dislodge the steak that was trapped in the customer's throat. You may recall that I referenced this incident in one of my articles last year, but it's definitely worth mentioning again — especially since Officer Fajardo has now been publicly acknowledged by the Department. Congratulations, sir. And more importantly, thank you for your dedication.

Last but not least: an update on our quest for CCWs. While participating in a recent Labor Management Committee meeting, I was pleased to hear positive news from Assistant Sheriff Limon. She said PPOA's mission to secure CCWs for LASD security officers and custody assistants is still moving in the right direction and she is hopeful this will be a reality soon. ♥

Proud to Honor Legacy of Fallen Custody Assistant

PPOA was honored to partner with the Twin Towers team at a barbecue fundraiser in late September to support the scholarship foundation for fallen Custody Assistant Anthony Thompson. As many of you know, Anthony was killed by a drunk driver on November 19, 2017. Please keep his mother, LASD Sergeant Ottawa Cureton, and her family in your thoughts and prayers as we approach the anniversary of Anthony's passing. If you would like to support the scholarship foundation, please consider participating in the 5K Run/Walk on November 17. See flyer for details. ♥

STEER CLEAR

HOLIDAY FREE RIDE PROGRAM

FOR PPOA MEMBERS

PPOA wants to ensure that all members make it home safely while celebrating and socializing during the holidays. The PPOA "Steer Clear" program offers reimbursements to members of this association who use UBER or LYFT between Nov. 28, 2019 and Jan. 1, 2020.

This reimbursement offer is limited to one round-trip or two one-way trips not exceeding 30 miles total. Valid for UberX only. Tips not included. Offer limited to active, dues-paying PPOA members.

If you plan to enjoy adult beverages this season, please do so responsibly. And if you're not in condition to drive safely, make sure to use UBER or LYFT and email your receipt to info@ppoa.com (using your personal non-LASD email address) for reimbursement.

We sincerely hope that PPOA members enjoy a safe and happy holiday season!

A Lifetime of Service; Two Nelsons Are Better Than One

Retired Sergeant John “Ron” Nybakken is a man who has given much to his nation, to Los Angeles County and to his fellow military veterans. In fact, the 84-year-old U.S. Navy veteran continues to volunteer his time to assist the leadership of American Legion Star Post #309 to this day. Maybe it was the way Ron was raised, maybe it was his generation, maybe it was something he ate as a kid, but he is one of the good guys.

Ron devoted 29.5 years to the county before retiring from Antelope Valley Station in September 1989.

He evidently was nowhere near ready for a life of leisure, as the newfound retirement lasted all of two months before he latched on to a position with the feds. Ron devoted the next 25 years to his role as a reserve employee with FEMA.

Ron Nybakken

If you're keeping score, that's eight years of military service followed by three decades of law enforcement followed by a quarter-century of providing disaster relief throughout United States territories and possessions. He finally bid adieu to employment in 2012 and actually penned the word “retired” on his Rookies Roost survey. However, he did make it a point to place that term in quotation marks, which could very well denote a wink with fingers crossed behind his back.

Having finally learned to embrace the glory of retirement, Ron and his wife, Charlotte, live in Palmdale and enjoy traveling, cruising and collecting (books, guns, coins). The Nybakkens will celebrate 46 years of wedded bliss this month, and Ron wrapped up his comments with this perspective: “Looking forward to the balance of my life relaxing and enjoying family and friends. Lord willing, I’ll be around for a few more years.” Amen, Ron! Thank you for a lifetime of commitment and your spirit of service.

If you’d like to reach out to Ron, his email address is nybakken.john@gmail.com.

Mike Nelson retired as a commander in 1996 following 34 years of service and now enjoys a tranquil, small-town existence in Rathdrum, Idaho. Note this line in his survey response: “No startling adventures for me; not since retiring.” Considering that his interests include hunting, fishing and travel, one would assume Mike has plenty of adventures in which to partake. But after reading his unforgettable on-the-job memories, it is easy to realize why those adventures set the standard for Mike. They are as follows, in Mike’s words:

- Being assigned to CHP Newhall shooting case in 1970
- My son, Pat Nelson, as one of five 18-year-old LASD interns working at stations as a report taker (and now chief of Detective Division in 2019)
- Watts and ELA riots

Mike, congrats on 23 years of retirement done right. Also, I want to thank you on behalf of PPOA for serving as a Board member of this association in 1994–1995. More importantly, thank you for raising your son to provide service and leadership to the community. He undoubtedly learned from one of the best.

Mike can be reached at mikeatlake@gmail.com.

Speaking of Idaho, the Rookies Roost article in the September 2019 issue made reference to retired LASD Captain Mike Bauer and his bid to become the next sheriff of Kootenai County. Well, I’ve since learned there are actually two ambitious L.A. County retirees on a mission to steer Kootenai County in the right direction! It turns out that retired LASD Lieutenant Bob Norris is also a candidate for sheriff. I want to thank retired PPOA member (and proud Kootenai County voter) Bill Postmus, who keenly and kindly kept me current on this key kernel of knowledge. For more information about Bob Norris and his campaign for sheriff of one of the fastest growing counties in the nation, visit norris2020.com. 🇺🇸

Teach Teens Financial Responsibility

If you're currently raising a young teen, it is probably a common occurrence to hear them plead for money — your money. How can you tame their cash demands and avoid the money wrangles, while also instilling a sense of financial responsibility? Here are a few ideas:

- Make the most of “teachable moments” — Look for opportunities in your day-to-day interactions with your teen when you can slip in a money “lesson.” For instance, if you're out shopping together, you can talk about your own shopping choices or why you're delaying a purchase.
- Provide hands-on experience — These types of experiences have more impact for teens than just listening to you talk. For example, have your teenager make the grocery list for the week. At the market, they will see for themselves how big a chunk of the family budget goes toward groceries.
- Model money monitoring — Sit down with your teen to go over their list of expenditures for the week. Discuss questions like: Was this a want or a need? Why did your balance get so low at this point? What could you have done differently in your spending?
- Introduce plastic — If you've decided that your teen is mature enough to manage a debit card, you may want to introduce this option as a way for them to learn how to budget and manage their spending limit.

- Talk about the future — What will come after high school? If it's college, what portion of expenses will the teen have to cover? Older teens also begin to think about career choices. This is a good time to talk with them about saving for retirement as well. It's never too early to have that conversation.

Here at POPA FCU, we offer a K-9 Savers account for kids ages 0–17 and a Bulldogs checking account with debit card for teens 14–17 years old. There is even a Bulldogs Visa® credit card with a credit limit up to $1,000 should you feel that your teen is ready to start building their credit early (parent or guardian must be a co-applicant).

Discover Why Cedar City, Utah Is the Destination of Choice for Many Retired California Law Enforcement and Service Men and Women.

PPOA Members Help Two Bills Overcome Obstacles in State Capitol

For decades, PPOA has had a robust legislative presence at the Capitol, and 2019 has been no exception. What sets PPOA apart from many other law enforcement organizations is the active participation by PPOA Board members. Many other organizations leave most legislative activity to their lobbyists and rarely involve themselves directly in a legislative presence of their own. At PPOA, however, Board members take an active role.

Assembly Bill 294 is a great example of the effectiveness of diligent work from PPOA Board members. PPOA sponsored AB 294 to address the dangers of gassing from inmates, and it was approved by both houses of the Legislature thanks to the direct activities of your Board members.

AB 294 imposes a six-month timeline for local and state correctional facilities to complete investigations of gassing attacks; requires local and state correctional facilities to provide notice to their employees informing them of their rights following a gassing attack; those same facilities must make protective gear available to staff, document gassing attacks, provide adequate officer training on how to prevent and mitigate the harm from gassing attacks, and replace any article of an officer's uniform that has been soiled in a gassing attack; and requires local and state correctional facilities to provide notice to inmates informing them of their rights if they are exposed to another inmate's bodily fluids.

Despite opposition from the ACLU and the California Public Defenders Association (CPDA), AB 294 was approved unanimously by the Assembly Committee on Public Safety. This is not a committee that normally gives unanimous approval to law-enforcement-sponsored bills — particularly in the face of opposition from the ACLU and public defenders, but they did in the case of this bill. Credit for that lopsided approval goes to PPOA Immediate Past President Brian Moriguchi. His testimony before the committee was powerful and provided the committee with a graphic understanding of the dimensions of a gassing attack on an officer. So impactful was Brian's testimony that one of the assemblymembers who normally supports the ACLU and the CPDA informed those two advocates that "if you gas someone, you give up your civil liberties." Given the philosophy of that member, his comments caught the attention of everyone in the hearing room.

AB 294 was approved by the Assembly Appropriations Committee, the full Assembly and also by the Senate Committee on Public Safety, but then ran into a roadblock in the Senate Appropriations Committee. The bill was placed on what is called the suspense file, the destination for bills when committee staff determine that the costs to the state exceed a threshold amount. Most bills sent to that committee's suspense file die shortly thereafter, but this was one of a minority of bills on the suspense file that were released for further deliberation. The credit for moving this bill off the suspense file, obtaining Senate approval and having the bill now on Governor Newsom's desk should be given to PPOA President Tab Rhodes and former President Moriguchi. On August 12, President Rhodes and former President Moriguchi met with the chair of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Anthony Portantino, in his district office with the aim of having the bill removed from that committee's suspense file and having it passed to the committee floor. They presented documented evidence to Senator Portantino that the actual costs of implementing AB 294 were well under the fiscal threshold calling for a bill to be placed on the suspense file in the first place. As a result of that meeting, the Senate Appropriations Committee released AB 294 from its suspense file and the bill moved smoothly through the remainder of the legislative process and now sits on Governor Newsom's desk, awaiting a final signature to become law.

There is another PPOA-sponsored bill that is still in its first committee. Senate Bill 536 is in the Senate Committee on Public Safety at this time. This bill will extend the protections of the Peace Officers' Bill of Rights to coroners and deputy coroners who are in free-standing coroner's offices. Coroners and deputy coroners who are in a sheriff-coroner's office are already covered by POBOR. The reason SB 536 didn't get out of the Senate Public Safety Committee is due to increasing legislative hostility to expanding POBOR. PPOA Executive Director Wayne Quint and Board Member Joyce Kato came to Sacramento to meet directly with Senator Skinner, who is the chair of the Senate Public Safety Committee. Their advocacy in that meeting opened the door to serious discussions about that bill, provided it is focused on the L.A. County Coroner's Office. At present, we are working with the Legislative Counsel's office in the drafting of a bill to provide substantive employee protections for coroner and deputy coroner personnel at the L.A. County Coroner's Office. Executive Director Quint and Board Member Kato deserve credit for opening this negotiation opportunity.

In addition to legislation, PPOA has taken a leadership position on parole issues. Under California law, the governor has a 30-day window of authority to overturn a grant of parole to a convicted murderer. In the last three years, PPOA has sent over a dozen letters to then-Governor Brown and Governor Newsom asking that they overturn a specific grant of parole. Most of the cases where we have reached out to either governor have involved cop killers, while others have involved particularly heinous crimes.

Every single one of PPOA's letters to either governor has contributed to the overturning of every one of those dysfunctional parole grants.

PPOA has a robust Sacramento presence on behalf of our members. Very few associations of our size have accomplished what PPOA has in the halls of the state Capitol, and our commitment to that mission has helped us protect generations of PPOA members. 🇺🇸

For the last three decades, PPOA's sweetest holiday tradition has been the See's Candies discount offer. The famous treats make perfect gifts for everyone (except your dentist). Over the years, PPOA members have ordered more than $100,000 in sweet See's goodness while enjoying significant savings over retail prices. This offer is available to PPOA members only and 100 percent of the discount is passed on to our members. PPOA makes no money on these sales. Orders must be received by November 29 and can be picked up at PPOA (San Dimas) at any point after December 12. Please make checks payable to PPOA. All sales are final.
