

2020 ACTIVE PPOA MEMBER SCHOLARSHIP

This one-time $1,000 award is named in honor of Dennis Porter (LASD retired), who founded LASD University. PPOA shares the goals of the university and established this scholarship to enhance personal and professional growth; promote a lifelong commitment to learning; and enable PPOA members to better serve the community.

CRITERIA

The following criteria will be considered for scholarship: academic achievement, community service, work experience and essay.

Eligible Applicants

Applicant must be an “Active” full PPOA member in good standing.

Requirements

- Applicant must complete and submit application.
- Applicant must submit copy of most recent college or university transcripts (if applicable.)
- Applicant must submit resume detailing community service and work experience. (Please do not include your name on the resume.)
- Applicant must submit typed 500-750 word essay, based on the following:

Public Safety vs Personal Freedoms: Should personal liberties be suspended in emergencies? Give your supporting reasons for or against and what it means to you.

(Please do not include personal identification information in essay.)

- Applicant must submit proof of registration at accredited college or university (at least 9 units) before scholarship will be awarded.
